

Charlotte Mason's Coursework for Reference

Form VI - Grades 11 - 12

* NOTE - these are work & book examples taken from a few different terms and programmes of work. The choices listed reflect a quantity of choices that might be selected for 1 TERM OF WORK

Religion Knowledge of God	Bible Commentary used to read both the Old & New Testaments	Study of the Epistles and Book of Revelation
Composition Knowledge of Man	Letter to newspaper on topics of the day	Essays from History, Literature, Economics, or any subject that interests you	Dialogue between characters in literature & history	Write on some aspect of nature Write on a picture studied	Essays on ethical & economic problems & current events	20 lines of blank verse on some deed of heroism or aspect of nature	A good precis - (summary or abstract of a text or speech) (p. 194)	Written essay exam examples p. 195 - 209
English Grammar Knowledge of Man	English Lessons for English People by Abbot and Seeley pp. 190-219	Plato's Socratic Dialogues	Home Education p. 42 - 95	Praeterita , Vol I by Ruskin
Literature Knowledge of Man	a) Essays in Criticism by M. Arnold, Vol II	b) The Life of Robert Browning by E. Dowden or G.K Chesterton	c) Tennyson's poems	d) Lay Sermons by Huxley	e) Vittoria by Meredith	f) Romany Rye by Borrow	g) The Oxford Book of Verse contemporary poets	The Battle of the Books by Boswell
Literature Knowledge of Man	Essays on Goldsmith, Johnson, Pitt by Macauley	She Stoops to Conquer	Keep a Commonplace book	Learn 100 lines of poetry	Narrate what you have read from each book with sketches of chief characters

Charlotte Mason's Coursework for Reference

Form VI - Grades 11 - 12

* NOTE - these are work & book examples taken from a few different terms and programmes of work. The choices listed reflect a quantity of choices that might be selected for 1 TERM OF WORK

General History Knowledge of Man	LITERATURE OF THE PERIOD	A Survey of Modern History by H.W. Hodges, p. 1 - 263	BOC - Make summaries of dates and events	Shorter History of the English People by Green - this is the textbook in English history	Essays on Frederick the Great by Macauley	Austrian Succession	An American history of western Europe	A history of France, well translated from the original of M. Duruy
General History Knowledge of Man	L'Allemagne by Madame de Stael	The Legacy of the Ancient World by Professor de Burgh	Literature set from the period pressed into service: plays, novels, 'lives', poems, architecture, painting	The geographical aspects of history fall under 'Geography' as a subject	* Make history charts of every 100 years * Make summaries of dates and events	Use maps	History Chart by Lady Louise Loder	Atlas' used: Literary Historical Classical
Art Studies Knowledge of Man	The Fesole Club Papers by W.G. Collingwood, p. 121 - 144	Ideals of Painting by C. Wildon Carr, p. 1 - 82	Studies of heads.	Study 6 reproductions of J.F. Watts: see Parents' Review	Paintbox with specially chosen colors and brush	Written description of a particular work
Geography Knowledge of the Universe	The Expansion of England by Sir J. Seeley, p. 1 - 43	Elementary Lessons in Physical Geography by Geikie, p. 222 - 271	Practical Geography by Mort, p. 77 - 88	The World Wide Atlas - use with current events/ History studies	Make use of a good atlas	Geography taught through the Panoramic method: unroll the landscapes of the world region by region (p. 228)	Panoramic method makes use of: * vivid descriptions * geographical principles * historical associations * industrial details

Source: Ambleside Online <http://www.amblesideonline.org/FormI.shtml> from the Fall 1921 term of work. Also compiled from my notes on Volume 6 of Home Education, p. 154 - 234, The Curriculum.

Charlotte Mason's Coursework for Reference

Form VI - Grades 11 - 12

* NOTE - these are work & book examples taken from a few different terms and programmes of work. The choices listed reflect a quantity of choices that might be selected for 1 TERM OF WORK

Geology Knowledge of the Universe	Scientific Ideas of Today by C.R. Gibson, p. 230 - 257	A Textbook of Geology by C. Lapworth, p. 311 - 351	Some account of the geology of your neighborhood, showing sections
Biology & Botany Knowledge of the Universe	Study of Animal Life by Thompson, p. 298 - 345	An Introduction to the Study of Plants by Fritsch and Salisbury, p. 48 - 89	Botanical Tables by Buckley	Specimens used in all botanical work & experiments made and keep a nature notebook	A Nature Study Guide by Furneaux (choose special studies)	Seasonal work: The Changing Year by F.M. Haines (Aug-Dec) The Sea-Shore by W.P. Pycraft
Astronomy Knowledge of the Universe	The Story of the Heavens by R.S. Ball, p. 372 - 433	Follow newspaper reports on astronomical subjects	Make charts in changes in position of the constellations visible.
Musical Appreciation Knowledge of the Universe	See programme of Beethoven's music in the Parents' Review, Sept. 1921	The Enjoyment of Music by A.W. Pollitt
Singing Knowledge of the Universe	2 French songs	2 Italian songs	2 German songs	2 English songs	The National Song Book	Christmas Carols
Drill Knowledge of the Universe	A Manual of Free-Standing Movements by H. D. Hassum	House of Education drills

Source: Ambleside Online <http://www.amblesideonline.org/FormI.shtml> from the Fall 1921 term of work. Also compiled from my notes on Volume 6 of Home Education, p. 154 - 234, The Curriculum.

Charlotte Mason's Coursework for Reference

Form VI - Grades 11 - 12

* NOTE - these are work & book examples taken from a few different terms and programmes of work. The choices listed reflect a quantity of choices that might be selected for 1 TERM OF WORK

Work Knowledge of the Universe	Home or Garden work First Aid	Make Christmas presents	Garments for Infants by Synge	Darn and mend each week	See Scouting tests, Parents' Review, June 1920 in surveying, housecraft, handicrafts, etc.	School and Fireside Crafts by A. Macbeth
Reading	The Speaking Voice by Emil Behnke, p. 194 - 206	Reading Aloud by H. O'Grady
Arithmetic Knowledge of the Universe	Math has a proportional place in the day - time spent on math does not shut out other subjects
Geometry Knowledge of the Universe
Algebra Knowledge of the Universe
Latin Knowledge of Man
German or Italian Knowledge of Man

Source: Ambleside Online <http://www.amblesideonline.org/FormI.shtml> from the Fall 1921 term of work. Also compiled from my notes on Volume 6 of Home Education, p. 154 - 234, The Curriculum.

Charlotte Mason's Coursework for Reference

Form VI - Grades 11 - 12

* NOTE - these are work & book examples taken from a few different terms and programmes of work. The choices listed reflect a quantity of choices that might be selected for 1 TERM OF WORK

French Knowledge of Man
-----------------------------------	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--